CitizenPath is Proud to Support the 3rd Annual Immigrant Heritage Month

FULLERTON, Calif. (May 30, 2016) – CitizenPath announced its support of the third-annual Immigrant Heritage Month, an initiative to partner community organizations, elected officials, corporations, artists, and thought leaders to gather and share inspirational stories of American immigrants throughout the month of June.

“We’re thrilled to be a part of Immigrant Heritage Month,” said Russ Leimer, CitizenPath co-founder and chief marketing officer. “There’s no better way to celebrate our loyal customers and the legacy that made the United States great.”

CitizenPath provides a self-help service for do-it-yourself immigration filers. The online service simplifies complicated immigration forms similar to how TurboTax® helps its customers with tax preparation. The company also salutes the contributions of American immigrants on its website with content for Famous Immigrant Birthdays, Economics of Immigration and Immigration Quotes.

CitizenPath’s customers and supporters are encouraged to connect with Immigrant Heritage Month through social media or events in their city and share their own unique immigration stories with the #ImmigrantHeritageMonth and #IHM2016 tags.

“Sharing your immigration story is a terrific way to show your support for immigration and have a voice in a pivotal election season,” added Leimer.

Visit ‘Welcome.us’ for more information on how to share your story and learn more about our nationwide effort.
